GENERAL INFORMATION

1. OBJECTIVES

The principal objective of the Indian Film Festival Stuttgart is to promote and encourage an awareness, appreciation and understanding of the art of Indian cinema and to inspire cultural exchange through film. The Festival also promotes contacts between industry professionals to assist in the development of the Indian and German motion picture industry.

2. DATES

The 19th Indian Film Festival Stuttgart will be held from 20st to 24th July, 2022.

3. PROGRAMME

The Indian Film Festival Stuttgart shows:

1. Feature Films
2. Documentaries
3. Short Films (up to 30 Min.)
4. Animations

Films screened at the Festival must either be produced in India or have a reference to India.

Selected films will be placed in the appropriate programme by the Festival Organizing Committee. The Festival Organizing Committee reserves the right to rule on cases not foreseen by these regulations, but in accordance with International Regulations. Participation in the 2022 Indian Film Festival Stuttgart implies acceptance of the Rules and Regulations by producers and their agents.

4. SUBMISSION GUIDELINES

4.1. Submission Formats

For programming consideration, the Festival accepts only online screeners (e.g. vimeo). The Festival will not consider trailers for selection purposes. Producers must make separate arrangements at their own expense for double-system print submissions.

4.2. Eligibility Requirements

To be eligible for consideration, all films must meet the following requirements:

1. be available to screen as a composite film print in DCP, HD-File or Blu-Ray by 20th June, 2022. The Festival does not screen double-system prints.
2. not have been previously screened commercially in Germany nor available on the Internet prior to 25th July, 2022
3. be in their original language with English or German subtitles.
4. have been completed after 1st March, 2021. In exceptional cases, films that are slightly older may be considered.
5. films previously submitted to the Festival will not be considered for the 2022 Festival.

4.3. Selection

All submitted films will be watched and rated by an internal selection committee. This committee will select the films that will be screened at the festival.

In a second step the selection committee will determine films running in competition.

Please note: A film selected for the festival is not running in competition automatically.

5. AWARDS

The festival gives awards in the following categories:

1. German Star of India (Feature Film Award), endowed with 4,000 €
2. Best Documentary Award, endowed with 1,000 €
3. Best Short Film Award, endowed with 1,000 €
4. Director's Vision Award (prize for outstanding social or political dedication within a film)
5. Audience Award, endowed with 1,000 € (all films selected for the festival are running in the competition for the Audience Award)

6. DEADLINES

- The submission deadline for selecting purposes is 31st March 2022. The festival is not obliged to accept late entries.
- Submitted films will get noticed whether they were selected or not at the end of May 2022.
- Film prints of selected films have to be at the festival at latest 20th June, 2022.

7. FESTIVAL ATTENDANCE

The selection of films does not imply that Filmbuero Baden-Wuerttemberg is covering the filmmakers or the producers travel expenses.

Travel expenses will only be covered if the filmmakers receive a separate invitation of the festival director.

8. FILM TRANSPORT

- The Filmbuero Baden-Wuerttemberg covers the costs of one way shipping between India, North America and Germany respectively within Europe.
- Shipment needs to be done with our courier.
- Custom fees will not be covered by the Filmbuero.
- The Filmbuero does not take any responsibility for in- or export problems related to Indian Customs authority.
- Films are insured during their transport and at the festival.

9. FEES

- The festival does not pay any custom fees.
- The festival does not pay screening fees.
- The festival does not charge submission fees.

Herewith I confirm that I have read and understood the regulations above and that I do consent to them.
